Allison,

I've attached two documents on the Riparian issue. The shorter briefing document was used when the issue was presented to the managers. The other document was used when briefing the tech team. The latter is the document I would use to frame the rationale document. When building the rationale, if you would like to leave blanks where you need my input (or the riparian teams'), I (we) will come back and fill in those blanks.

Allison, thanks for all of your efforts on this. I thoroughly enjoy working with you on this project. I just wish you weren't so strong-willed and would see things my way. (Just kidding!)

Give me a call if you have questions regarding riparian.

Alan
